December Birthstone

Researched by:
Ben Walker

The December birthstone of the Turquoise is considered to be the birthstone for Sagittarius (The sign of the Archer) and relate to those born between November 23 - December 21

The three birthstones associated with December are Tanzanite, Zircon, and Turquoise

TANZANITE

Discovered in the late 1960s in Tanzania, and found exclusively in this tiny area of the world, tanzanite exhibits a rich violet-blue color for which the gemstone is treasured; often it is heat-treated to achieve this color. Colors range from blue to purple, and tanzanites that are medium dark in tone, vivid in saturation, and slightly violet blue command premium prices. As tanzanite can be less expensive than sapphire, it often was purchased as an alternative. However, it has increased in popularity and now is valued more for its own beauty and brilliance than as a sapphire substitute.

ZIRCON

Derived from the Arabic words zar and gun, meaning gold and color, zircon is found in a wide range of colors such as: blue, yellow, orange, brown, green, colorless, and red (the most prized color). For many years colorless zircon was used to imitate diamonds. Folk wisdom grants zircon the power to relieve pain, whet the appetite, protect travelers from disease and injury, to ensure a warm welcome, and to prevent nightmares guaranteeing a deep, tranquil sleep. Major sources of zircon are the Chanthaburi area of Thailand, the Palin area of Cambodia, and the southern part of Vietnam.

TURQUOISE

The name turquoise, from the French expression Pierre tourques or Turkish stone, originated in the thirteenth century and describes one of the oldest known gemstones. Turquoise varies in color from greenish blue, through robin's egg-blue, to sky blue shades and its transparency ranges from translucent to opaque. Turquoise is plentiful and is available in a wide range of sizes. It is most often used for beads, cabochons, carvings, and inlays. Although its popularity fluctuates in fashion, it is a perennial favorite in the American Southwest.

December Birth Flower

Researched by:
Ben Walker

THE NARCISSUS

The birth flower for December is the Narcissus. There are around 100 species of Narcissus flowers, including the wild hybrids. This pretty December birth flower is believed to have originated in Europe, North Africa and Asia.

Origin of Name: It is believed by some that the name 'Narcissus' is assigned to the flower because of its narcotic properties. In Greek, the word 'narkao' means 'to grow numb'. According to Greek mythology, it is believed that when Narcissus the hunter died, Apollo turned him into a flower 'Narcissus'. Narcissus the hunter became famous for falling in love with his own reflection - hence the word narcissistic. In any case, the name has Greek roots. The most common name for the December flower is 'Daffodil'.

Symbolic Meaning: The Narcissus symbolizes success, sweetness and good wishes. The flower also signifies self-esteem, celebration and wealth. Back in the Victorian era, the flower would symbolize a message of 'faithful love'.

Personality Traits: The people with Narcissus as their December birth flower are believed to have strong willpower and can fight their way out of difficult situations. They are self-confident and quite family-oriented. December-born people are generally quite systematic and logical in their approach in life.

Significance During Events &

Holidays: Narcissus is an ancient flower and is often worn on many significant occasions. Narcissus flowers are presented to celebrate a new baby's birth. The flower is also used to celebrate major occasions like Christmas and New Years Eve.

SHOWING AT MULBERRY ART STUDIO

Jonathan Whitlock's 2013 Show at Mulberry Arts Studio

Contributed by
Jonathan Whitlock

November 2013 was the month that my artwork is being displayed at the Mulberry Arts Studio downtown. I am currently featured on the Mulberry Studios web page, at http://www.mulberryartstudios.com/2013_11Nov.php. The artwork being displayed there ranges from 1998 to present. The show is entitled "Jonathan Whitlock: Looking Up." Along with the current works, I'm displaying pictures that date back to 1998; including 3 large works created back in college in Virginia.

The opening was held on Friday, November 1st, and a joyous time was had by all; the opening was attended by scads of friends from high school to present. So far, I've sold 5 out of 15 paintings displayed.

The show is an opportunity to show off a bit of what's been running through my mind the past few decades.

It's fascinating stuff, really.

Happy Halloween

Contributed by
Gerilynn Shulman

Halloween party it was really funny. Every participant wore a costume's. Dewey Wilfredo and Ernie wore the scariest, Jon W was Indiana Jones, Kathy was a Phillies fan, Dan and Kate were superhero's, Sam was a wrestler, Alley was a biker chick, Matt was a referee, Jamie came as Michael Jackson, Jon R. angel, Jayann was Waldo, Susan was witch, Gerilynn a nerdy graduate. Even the staff wore costume's. We had so much fun we even had snacks yummy. We had to go to the UDS office for the Halloween Parade. Everybody loved our costume's in the UDS office. They gave us some treats to give us yum. Some of their staff wore costumes too.

AE Halloween Party

BIRD-FREE

Contributed by Wilfredo Rivera

I went to see 'Free Birds' with my friends at Regal Cinemas.

It is a movie about Thanksgiving. The cartoon characters are turkeys. One of the turkeys has a girlfriend. They go on a great adventure because it is Thanksgiving and they want to take turkey off the menu.

This movie was very funny so I think you should go see it. My favorite part was when the turkeys flew into the barn and saved Thanksgiving for all the turkeys. The star of the show was Tom Turkey and his favorite thing to say was "Gobble gobble gobble."

Christmas at Church

Contributed by
Victor Miller

I enjoy the midnight Christmas service at my church. I like how we all sing together. I enjoy when we light the candles one at a time. My favorite Christmas song is O holy night. At my church have a live manger seen. My favorite part about the live manger seen is the baby Jesus. I've had my staff bring me the last 8 years. I look forward each year.

My Birthday

Contributed by
Jayann McCue

On Tuesday I woke on my birthday to three presents. The three gifts were a set of Eagles earrings, a Steelers necklace, and a Penn State hat. I then went to Acadia and AE I received many more birthday wishes and a card signed by all staff and clients. When I got home, my aunt gave me a Flyers shirt and earrings. My neighbor gave me some money and some shower gel. My mom also gave me a Penn State wallet and shirt. I had birthday brownies and a candy bar. Sunday I will be going out with my family for a birthday dinner. I had a great birthday.

My older brother Herbert

Contributed by
Victor Miller

He passed away in October. It was a Friday morning and he was in care of Hospice. He took care of me and always had a smile on his face. He loved taking me for walks when he came over. I was able to hold his hand when he died. I will always have great memories of him.

Christmas Dinner

Contributed by
Jon Azsman

Ever since I was a young child, we've had a big Christmas tradition. My brother and his family came over in the afternoon, open presents and have a prime rib dinner. I love having a loaded baked potato with dinner and peanut butter cookies for dessert. I also love hanging out with my brother, watching football and listening to Christmas music. My favorite present that I received is A BOSE radio.

December Our Christmas Traditions

Contributed by
Gerylynn Shulman

Our Celebrating Tradition is on Christmas Eve is having Bagels Lox and other stuff For my dad because he is Jewish. He does celebrates Christmas any way. My mom makes this sweet dish call Luxion Kugel. It could be a desert or a side dish you can eat it warm or cold Mom usually makes it during the holiday's I would like wish you a happy holiday and New Year 2014.

AE CONCERT

Contributed by
Jonathan Rodgers

We have a concert coming up on December 5th at 11:00 AM. We are singing songs about Christmas from around world. My favorite song is the one with tuki tuki too. We will pass microphone around for everyone to say their parts. My line is "That's crazy" I have been practicing my lines at home.

We will be doing 10 song.

There will be dancing and costumes and food, everyone will have a good time.

I am looking forward to being on stage.

My dad will be there and it will be a good way to celebrate Christmas.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY

Contributed by
Kathy Sherr

When I think of Christmas, it's a holiday. You can go to church on Christmas Eve. You can decorate a tree. You can also decorate your house.

Christmas Cookies

Contributed by
Ernie McClain

I have fond memories of making Christmas cookies with my mother. My favorite cookies to make with her, was gingerbread cookies. We would listen to Christmas Music, and watch Christmas Movies. We also played Christmas Bingo. This Christmas, I look forward to making cookies with my Aunt.

Contributed by
Kathy Sherr

Every year there is a Holiday show at the American Music Theatre. Last year I went to the show. It was really good. This year's show is on now. You can go out to eat before or after the show, which has a lot of singing and dancing. There is a shop at the theatre to buy souvenirs.

Music Appreciation

Contributed by
Ernie McClain

Music Appreciation class at AE is cool and fun. It is a new experience for me. We learn different music tunes and listen to all types of music from different countries and nations. We learned how to find music to listen to on the computer. There are some good sites like youtube.com, I heard radio.com and Pandora.com. It is very interesting to find different sounds and tunes and you can find music by your favorite artist. My favorite artist is gospel singer Kirk Franklin. The gospel choir I was part or sang with Kirk Franklin in Miami FL. When I was in High School.

NOVEMBER QEU MOVIE

“The Letter Writer”

November's QEU Movie (That's Quality, Enjoyable, & Uplifting) was “The Letter Writer.” You can watch the full-length feature film streamed on Netflix or free on youtube.com. After seeing this movie about how reaching out to others can make a difference, we brainstormed ways that the AE participants can also reach out. Here's what we came up with:

- Find a way to make people smile. This can be done through service, humor, lightening their burdens, or a smile of your own.
- Get involved in your church, service organizations, or other outreach organizations.
- Reach out through a phone call, a note, a card, or small gift.
- Do anonymous acts of service.
- Share positive, uplifting words.
- Wear (and even design) positive t-shirts.
- Be neighborly, looking for opportunities to connect and serve.
- Surround yourself with supportive, positive people who know and care about you.
- What do you like to do? What do you do best? Share it with others. Just do it!

How we Decorate for Christmas

Contributed by
Jessenia Santana

We have a Christmas tree! It has white lights. We hang balls on the tree. We put presents underneath the tree. We don't have Christmas stockings. We put a nativity underneath the tree. My favorite decoration is the Christmas tree. We keep our tree in the closet when it's not Christmas. I help my family decorate the Christmas Tree. However, I don't have a favorite part of Christmas.

Hoping for a white Christmas, shopping for Christmas gifts. Putting up the Christmas tree with lights and decorations. Lots of food ham, mashed potatoes, green beans, and pies, I look forward celebration the holidays.

Poem using the following words: Moth, Angle, Cloth and Tangle.

Contributed by

Ben Walker

A moth, finally breaking free

In the corner of the room, I saw a moth.

It was tangled, in cloth.

It's body was angled toward the light.

The moth felt frightened.

It tried to fly away, but couldn't.

Every time he tried, he got tangled, even more.

He gives up, feeling that his life is coming to an end,

Memories of friends went through his mind,

He was really close to this other moth, in the past, & wanted to see her once again,

Following his heart, he twisted, turned, & squirmed until he broke free,

He immediately flew back to her, where they could just be.

GIRL SINGS JAZZ!

Contributed by

Dan Rogudky

On Thursday night, November 21, my aunt and I went to see Molly Ringwald in concert as a jazz singer. She sang "I Feel Pretty," from West Side Story, "If I Were a Bell," from Guys and Dolls, and closed with a jazzed-up rendition of "Don't You Forget About Me," from the movie The Breakfast Club. At the Meet-and-Greet after the show, Molly and I laughed, spoke French together, shook hands, then I happily exited stage right!!

Santa, at Acadia the following verse was scripted, Dec, 2009

Contribute by
Jonathan Whitlock

When they mentioned the wreck, I wasn't really surprised
To hear it on TV and radio, both live.
I had both sets on, to make sure I heard right.
That Santa had chugged too much cider that night.

They'd noticed the wreckage on Lime street, downtown
Some kids were awoken and this they had found;
That reindeer were running every which way
The fat man unconscious, he'd been tossed from the sleigh.

A few weeks went by; and then, Santa awoke
America gasped, as these few words he spoke:
"I'd been just on my way to Greenfield, to stop
"At a rehab," the irony made all of their jaws drop.

"Acadia'd been good, this past year," he declared
"I guess now I'm giving them new business, I swear."
Acadia was happy to receive their new client
And everyone thought that for sure, he'd been "heaven-sent."

In the time that ensued, Acadia said they were up to it
To fix up this old man, get him ready for doing it:
The job that brought smiles to both girl and boys,
"It's just what we do," they said, when the plan had been noised.

The task was begun, to get him back on his feet.
The plans for an accessible chimney were beat
"I am going to walk." This he said, as he fell
To the floor; PT picked him up, and said, "Well well well!"

"Now why am I here? I forgot!" he asked why,
As the cognitive therapist exclaimed, "My my my!"
"Could you say that again?" the speech therapist asked,
Then, she just rolled her eyes, saying, "oh, blast blast blast!"

"So I'm feeling a little manic, head on..." he explained,
And the psychotherapist tired of hearing him complain
So at last, after forty-eight hours went by,
They all took a breath, looked at him; waved "Bye-bye!"

"But I'm not ready!" he exclaimed, as the elves carried him away
"Look. Just take this," they said, tossing him into the sleigh
And from that day on, Santa's list is always checked twice;
On PDA, and his GPS then is checked thrice.
