WEATHER

Joey- The weather has been hot and humid lately.

Jon W.- It is ideal for water fights.

Kathy S.- Fall arrived right on my brother's birthday. The end of the week it should be down into the 70s.

Jon R. - I'm looking forward to the cool weather coming. I like to go outside.

Jon W. - I enjoy Fall, it is very scenic.

Darla - Summer is my favorite time of year. I'd like to go back to camp next summer.

Kathy S.- The leaves are already changing colors.

Jon W. - What do we see in the night sky?

Bright stars sparkle. Planets tend to shine with a steadier light. Some stars, like Antares often scintillates – or sparkles wildly – when close to the horizon. Look closely at Antares and Saturn in the evening, to see if one of these colorful celestial beauties sparkles more than the other.

White Cane Safety Day in the United States

Picture By Dewey

White Cane Safety Day recognizes blind and visually impaired people, their achievements and how the white cane has helped them.

White canes provide the visually impaired with greater mobility within their communities. Blind and visually impaired people have used canes as mobility tools for centuries, but it was not until after World War I that the white cane was properly introduced. In modern times, there are different varieties of white canes, each serving slightly varied needs.

Many blind and visually impaired people, including famous musicians and writers, have made major positive contributions in the United States. Many have also used a white cane to help them succeed at educational institutions, work environments, and their homes.

We have participants who use white canes at AE. We try to give them extra space when they walk with their canes.

Kathy S. - Sometimes staff help guide them with verbal prompts to where they are heading.

Jonathan W - Always say 'hi' to them, and introduce yourself, so they know who you are.

COLUMBUS DAY

Contributed by The Newsletter Group
(Victor/Elise/Jay/Rob P/ MJ)

WHAT IS COLUMBUS DAY?

In 1492 The Explorer Columbus discovered The Americas. Columbus Day is celebrated every year on October 12. The three ships Columbus brought over for Spain was Pinta, Nina, and the Santa Maria. When asked about the three ship that Columbus sailed, Victor knew that one of the ships was named Santa Maria.

Columbus Day

Holiday

Columbus Day is a national holiday in many countries in the Americas and elsewhere which officially celebrates the anniversary of Christopher Columbus's arrival in the Americas on October 12, 1492. The landing is celebrated as "Columbus Day" in the United States, as "Día de la Raza" in many countries in Latin America, as "Día de la Hispanidad" and "Fiesta Nacional" in Spain, where it is also the religious festivity of la Virgen del Pilar, as Día de las Américas in Belize and Uruguay, as Día del Respeto a la Diversidad Cultural in Argentina, and as Giornata Nazionale di Cristoforo Colombo or Festa Nazionale di Cristoforo Colombo in Italy and in the Little Italys around the world. These holidays have been celebrated unofficially since the late 18th century and officially in various countries since the early 20th Century.

Creative Thinking

In Creative Thinking we have really been Creative. Here we are Bubble Painting with straws and pipe cleaners. We really enjoy this class because it helps us to use our imagination along with our talents. Starting in September we will be working on a 2 month long Puppet Show. We are looking forward to expressing ourselves in many ways.

National Mad Hatter Day

October 6 is a day set aside each year to celebrate National Mad Hatter Day. The fictional character, The Hatter (also known as The Mad Hatter) from Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, typically acts silly. A group of computer technicians in Boulder, Colorado first celebrated Mad Hatter Day in 1986 as a day of silliness. The date, October 6th, was chosen due to the label tucked in the Mad Hatter's hat band that read "In this style 10/6".

The phrase "mad as a hatter" comes from the late 18th and early 19th centuries when haberdasheries used mercury nitrate. The exposure to this metal over time caused the tradesmen to develop symptoms making people believe they were mad.

On National Mad Hatter Day, pursue laughable, absurd or even confusing adventures. Break out from the usual routine. Ask ridiculous riddles. Play croquet with plastic pink flamingos or wear a funny hat to work. Celebrate the day with silliness!

What is National Mad Hatter Day?

Jon W. – A day of relief from the bonds of logic

Jamie – It is supposed to be a silly day.

Joey – It is a day of happiness and rainbows, with kindness.

Darla – People are supposed to wear funny clothing and a hat.

Kathy – It is from the movie Alice in Wonderland. Alice sometime s grew big and sometimes grew small.

Jon R. – Everyone at AE is supposed to wear a hat on October 6th.

WORLD ANIMAL DAY

Question- Did you have any Pets? Victor said that when he was 9 years old he had a little bunny named Victor. Mary Jane had to 2 Dogs named Coco and Lulu Magoo. Gloria, when she was little had a Beagle named Marjie. Jay had a cat named Smokie. Elise has a dog named Shadow.

While he may be rolling in his grave to discover that he was not the first person to be able to talk to animals, Doctor Doolittle would almost certainly be a keen advocate of World Animal Day which takes place on the Feast of St Francis of Assisi, October 4th. Started in 1931 in Italy, this annual celebration of all things furry is now a popular day in which we remember the important role that animals have to play in our world, as well as the people who devote their lives working to protect and care for them. To get into the festive mood on October 4th you are encouraged to ditch the fur fabrics, refuse to buy products tested on animals and – probably of greater concern to the majority of folk – convert to vegetarianism. Group Games

Group games can be very funny. Some of the things we do in group games are Mad Libs, Hangman, Bingo, Ping Pong Pitch, Balloon Smack, Table Bowling, and some games we don't quite remember. We've played Uno in the past, it was fun. We have a Giant Kerplunk that we've played. The class is fun and is interesting. It's crazy. We also did a freeze dance that wasn't quite as popular as some of the games. In the future we would like to play Pictionary, have a karaoke competition, Wii bowling, and Wii tennis. We like the games because we're not just sitting around, we get to do something.

AMERICAN HALLOWEEN TRADITIONS

CONTRIBUTED BY NEWSLETTER GROUP

The American Halloween tradition of “trick-or-treating” probably dates back to the early All Souls’ Day parades in England. During the festivities, poor citizens would beg for food and families would give them pastries called “soul cakes” in return for their promise to pray for the family’s dead relatives. The distribution of soul cakes was encouraged by the church as a way to replace the ancient practice of leaving food and wine for roaming spirits. The practice, which was referred to as “going a-souling” was eventually taken up by children who would visit the houses in their neighborhood and be given ale, food, and money.

The tradition of dressing in costume for Halloween has both European and Celtic roots. On Halloween, when it was believed that ghosts came back to the earthly world, people thought that they would encounter ghosts if they left their homes. To avoid being recognized by these ghosts, people would wear masks when they left their homes after dark so that the ghosts would mistake them for fellow spirits. On Halloween, to keep ghosts away from their houses, people would place bowls of food outside their homes to appease the ghosts and prevent them from attempting to enter.

Kathy – A long time ago I used to dress up in a costume and sit outside and wait for the children to come. Then I asked them to take one piece of candy.

Jamie – One year my Dad sat on the front porch in a monster costume, moving his hand like a robot. Then when someone came, he would jump up and scare them. My uncle would sit on my Dad’s lap, and scream like my Dad was attacking him. My Dad would growl and my mom would scream. My cousin thought it was funny.

Jonathan W. – I used to go out trick-or-treating as a kid. One year I went as a television set, and I scared many children. My church always had a Halloween party, sometimes before Halloween.

Darla – My Mom and I always enjoyed handing out candy for the little kids.

Joey – I dressed up like a Whoopie Cushion last year. It was pretty funny. I got people to laugh.

Jon R. – We handed out candy.
