20 FACTS ABOUT MERCURY?

Researched By:
Dewey Coplin

1. Second-smallest planet.
2. Closest to the sun.
3. One rotation is 58.65 days.
4. Orbits the Sun in 88 days.
5. 36 million miles away for Sun.
6. Surface temp rater -290degree F to 810degree F.
7. 3029 diameter in miles.
8. No moons.
9. Mass ratio to earth (earth is 1) is 0.055.
10. Gravity ratio to earth (earth is 1) is 0.38.
11. Rich in Iron.
12. The core is 2235 miles in diameter .
13. Atmosphere is 52% Oxygen.
14. Atmosphere is 39% Sodium.
15. Atmosphere is 8% Helium.
16. Atmosphere is 1% Potassium and other gassers.
17. There was a Meteorite striped which was very big that it made mountains on the other side by the sock waves.
18. Mariner 10 took pictures of Mercury first.
19. I got 19 for the book "Universe"
20. This the most interesting fact: Mercury's orbit doesn't behave the way it should under classical Newtonian mechanics. This is one of the anomalies that led Einstein to develop his theory of relativity. The gravity of the sun actually warps the space near Mercury, which is why it's orbit is weird.

AE BOWLING

Contributed By
Katie, Mack, & Wilfredo

For a Wednesday outing, we went to a bowling alley. Wilfredo was delighted to score a strike, and a spare.

Not only did Kate score a strike she got a few spares too! Mack, on the other hand, simply found the occasion to be a wonderful escape and liked getting to know the group a little better.

With the addition of pizza and soda for lunch, the occasion was found to be a joyous time by all.

February 14th is Valentine's day, otherwise known as sweat hearts. Its a day dedicated to sweat hearts . If you have a sweat heart, you can make her breakfast in bed or take her out to dinner. Some people believe in Cupid. He is a little fellow who has wings and a bow and arrow. He lives in the clouds. He watches to shoot arrows at people to make them fall in love. I like the idea and think it'd be fun to be shot by Cupid's arrows. It would be nice to get a valentine that way.

Barak Obama is the 1st black president of the United states. His wife is Michelle Obama. They have 2 children and a dog. Obama cares about poor people who do not have money. He is a good president and helps people out a lot. Obama likes kids and thinks Sesame Street is a good show for them to watch. Michelle Obama was on iCarly one time and said she watches it with her daughters. Overall, I think Obama is a good guy.

The Special Olympics of Lancaster County Bowling Tournament was held Saturday January 17th 2015 at Leisure Lanes.

One Hundred and three bowlers participated. Helpers were at each lane from Warwick High School's national honor society.

Bowlers came from Dutch and Leisure Lanes. This is a yearly evening. It is a kickoff to tournament season. Twenty to twenty five athletes will go on to the Eastern Sectionals in Allentown. Some will go to the State sectionals hosted at Penn State University, and perhaps a lucky someone will go to the national competition. Last year this was held at Princeton New Jersey. Elliott and Shaun both got third place at the tournament. The teams at Leisure Lanes had three members and each player got a ribbon. Blue for the gold, red for silver, and yellow for bronze.
